

Alto Adige Wine Culture in the Vinum Hotels of Alto Adige

Alto Adige Wine Hotels Offer Fascinating Experiences Surrounding Alto Adige Wine

Spending the night in the midst of an Alto Adige winegrowing zone and getting to know fascinating winegrowers: that's what makes a vacation in the Alto Adige Wine Hotels so unique and exciting. In the Vinum Hotels of Alto Adige, wine lovers and true connoisseurs are offered authentic wine experiences that satisfy the most demanding of palates. All twenty-nine Vinum Hotels are situated within renowned Alto Adige winegrowing zones, where the Mediterranean South meets the Alpine North and international wine history has been written. Wine has been cultivated in Alto Adige-South Tyrol for more than 2,500 years. The winegrowing region of Alto Adige-South Tyrol is thus among the oldest in the German-speaking world. The vines range from the valley floors up to well over a thousand meters (3,300 feet). Different microclimate zones offer ideal conditions for elegant red wines and sleek, fresh white wines.

The Vinum Hotels are run very personally by passionate wine connoisseurs. Vacation guests can dive into the world of Alto Adige wines with expert guidance. Wine experiences are offered in the form of tastings, vineyard trips, and winery tours. In this way, relationships are forged with the winegrowing region and the people which range far beyond the vacation. From the steep slopes of the Val Venosta to the grapevine terraces in the Isarco Valley, from the top Lagrein areas in the Bolzano basin to the cypress-lined vineyard slopes in the Bassa Atesina: the Vinum Hotels accompany the wine connoisseur to the very source of the delicious drops. Thanks to numerous wine seminars, the subject can be gone into more deeply and more broadly with the tasting of Alto Adige wines. All Vinum Hotels offer their guests a well-arranged, extensive wine list. Thanks to constant wine trips and the continuing education of the committed Alto Adige sommeliers, the large wine cellars hold not only top-quality Alto Adige wines, but also wine rarities from all over the world. Guests can always rely upon the competent advice of the trained sommeliers. The wine experts in the Vinum Hotels offer detailed wine recommendations from which to pair with delicious dishes, turning the vacation into a genuine gourmet experience.
